

“Howl at the Moon... With a Wild Thing Tune!”

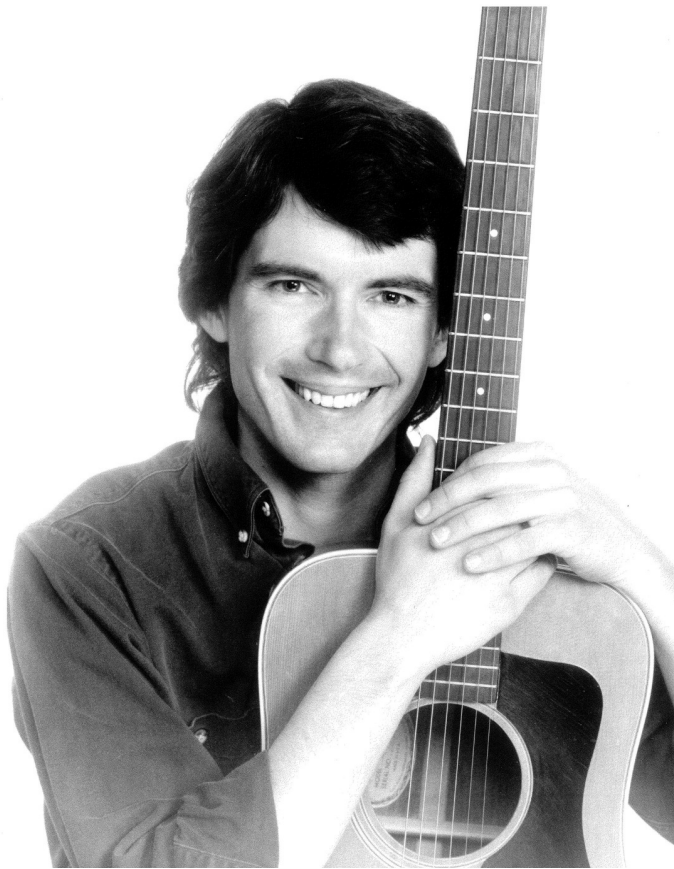

Humorous songs about our natural world

A very participatory family program for all ages-that also promotes reading and library visits

With singer and guitarist/banjoist Tom Sieling

“Tom is a wonderfully engaging performer... sure to raise even the most reticent out of their seat! We ‘howled at the moon, sang a wild thing tune’, and wanted more!”

“Tom is masterful both as a musician and in how he relates to his audience... His sense of humor and sheer fun shines throughout it all. He is a winner every time!”

Tom writes and performs songs for children and adults. He has delighted tens of thousands in regional libraries (128 family programs during the summer reading season of 2008) over the past 20 years. His library programs are VERY participatory (every song), fun, humorous, lively (even a bit athletic!), and informative. He accompanies himself on guitar, banjo, harmonica... and a drum machine! Tom travels with a great sound system for use as needed - it works nicely outside, too.

(Over...)

“One cold, rainy afternoon last summer, Tom Sieling brought his warm and wonderful voice to our library. Children’s laughter filled our walls as the kids and their parents danced and sang... I recommend Tom for any family-oriented program. His energy and welcoming personality will make your program a hit for all ages!”

Fees and Travel:

The fee for Tom’s library programs is $250, or $225 if block-booked with at least one other library within 60 miles. Usually, no mileage charge is added, as long as bookings can be arranged when he’s within 60 miles or so of your library (he tours and camps a lot– 13,500 miles last summer!). For single bookings, 30 cents per roundtrip mile from Ithaca, NY is the worst case scenario. Please call or email anytime for more information or to arrange bookings.
